

Toco Warranty Corp. Fact Sheet

Our Story

In the past, buying a vehicle service contract meant paying up front for years of coverage or making a large down payment.

Toco decided that it didn't have to be that way.

What if auto repair protection could be an easy, affordable monthly expense, much like a utility or phone bill? What if paying a small amount each month would keep your vehicle protected and save you money and stress?

Toco is committed to a smarter approach to repair coverage that is transparent and fair. We take care of the car and driver, before, during, and after a breakdown.
