DISPUTE ARBITRATION

Most customer concerns can be quickly and satisfactorily resolved by calling Toco Warranty Corporation at (855) 298-8626. In the unlikely event that Your matter is not resolved or if We have been unable to resolve a dispute after attempting to do so informally, You and We each agree to resolve those disputes through binding arbitration or small claims court instead of in courts of general jurisdiction. Arbitration is more informal than a lawsuit in court, it uses a neutral arbitrator instead of a judge or jury, it allows for more limited discovery than in court and is subject to very limited review by courts. Arbitrators can award the same damages and relief as a court.

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

Upon accepting the issuance of the Service Plan, We and You agree to arbitrate disputes and claims that arise with respect to the other. This agreement to arbitrate is intended to be broadly interpreted. It includes, but is not limited to:

- claims arising out of or relating to any aspect of the relationship, whether based in the Service Plan, tort, statute, fraud, misrepresentation, or any other legal theory;
- claims that arose before this or any prior Service Plan (including, but not limited to, claims relating to marketing);
- claims that are currently the subject of purported class action litigation in which You are not a member of a certified class; and
- claims that may arise after the termination of this Service Plan.

This arbitration agreement does not preclude You from bringing issues to the attention of federal, state, or local agencies. Such agencies can, if the law allows, seek relief against Us on Your behalf. You agree that, by entering into this Service Plan, You and We are each waiving the right to a trial by jury or to participate in a class action. This Service Plan evidences a transaction in interstate commerce, and thus the Federal Arbitration Act governs the interpretation and enforcement of this provision. This provision shall survive termination of the Service Plan.
